FOOD VOUCHERS for SUKKOT

Israel will soon celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot, in Hebrew) commemorating God's providence for His people in the wilderness. Families will leave the comfort of their homes and build frail, temporary booths, where they live and feast for seven days, as a reminder that God is their only true source of security and sustenance. Yet, even as they prepare to celebrate, some families struggle to put food on their tables.

Your donation TODAY will give the Damaris and their children, along with other struggling families, food vouchers for the upcoming holiday of Sukkot. These vouchers enable needy families to purchase food with dignity and celebrate the festival with joy just as God commanded:

You shall rejoice before the Lord seven days (LEVITICUS 23:40).

YOUR DONATION WILL ENABLE NEEDY PARENTS LIKE MENACHEM AND ESTI TO FEEL LOVED AND CARED FOR.

CFOIC Heartland Director Sondra Oster Baras presents food coupons for hundreds of needy families in Samaria to Samaria Family Assistance Director Anat Zafrir and Senior Social Worker Dr. Pinchas Gerber.

Menachem and Esti Damari have been struggling to provide for their ten children for several years. After he suffered a stroke and underwent a long rehabilitation process, Menachem lost his business, and debts piled up. Thankfully, Menachem regained his strength and is working, while Esti cares for their young children. But with the debts incurred, the family is barely scraping by. Getting ready for Sukkot for a family of twelve is no easy task. But you can help!
